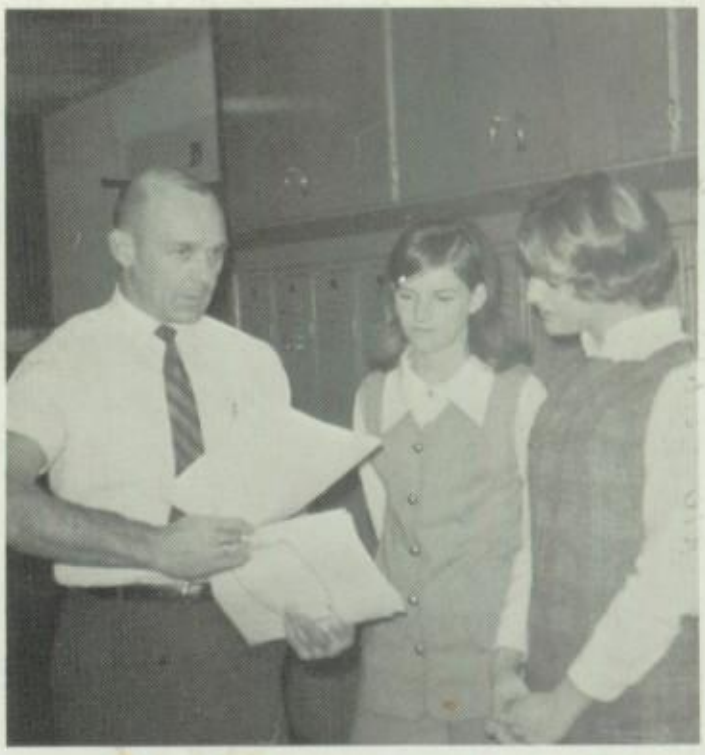
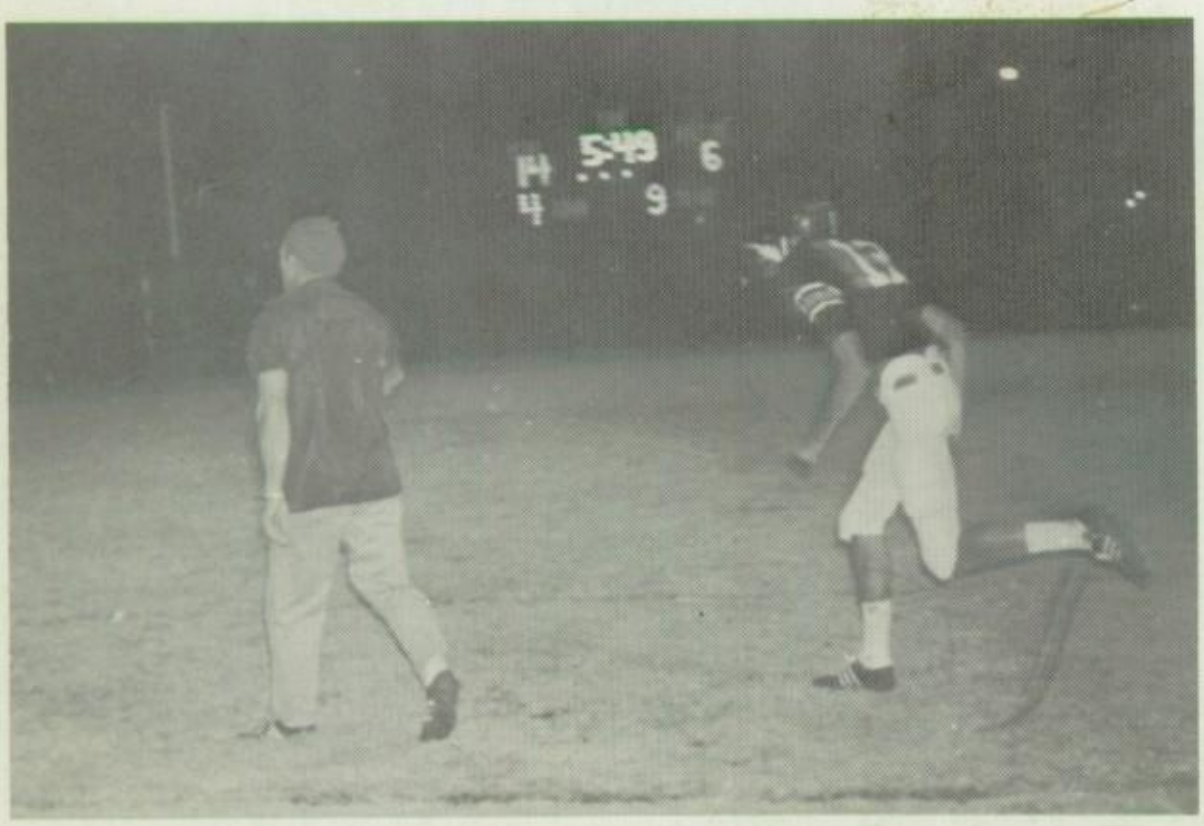
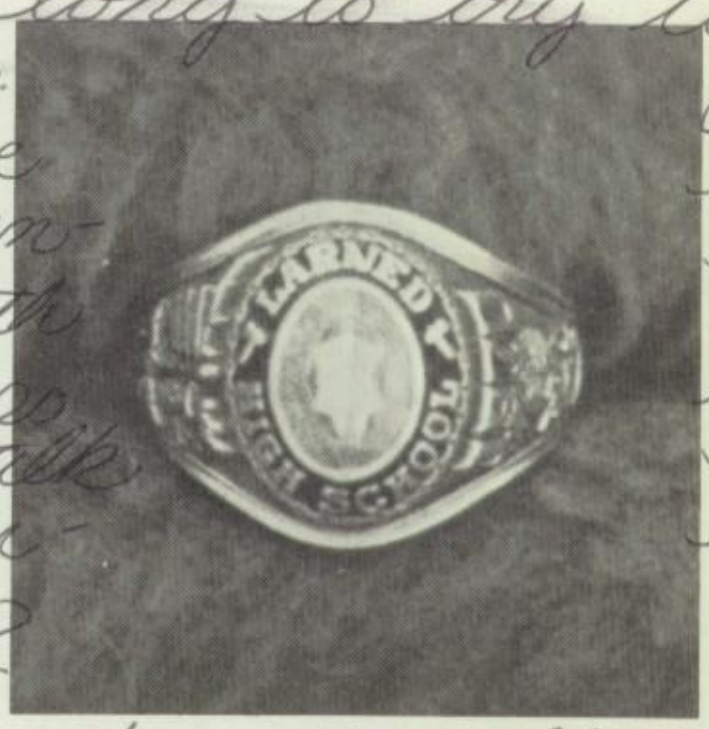
Dedicated To Our Coach

Counselor and Coach Mel Geier







DO YOU REMEMBER?

Only three years ago we entered our first days of high school and now they have passed.

In 1967, we gave our class yell for the first time as Sophomores, and sang the school song. We were led by Schmidt, Giessel, and Vratil. We followed our team to State.

Our Junior year, we elected Converse, Simmons, and Lockert. We chose both school and class rings and gave our Junior Class play, "George Washington Slept Here." We worked all year to earn money to put on our Prom, "Psychedelic Sunshine."

At last we were Seniors. The Class of '70 was led by Giessel, Clock, and Keast. Fred Jamison, Class Cheerleader for the past two years, was once again unanimously chosen. Reigning as our Football Homecoming Queen was Diana Young, and Cynthia Simmons reigned as our Basketball Homecoming Queen. We chose our announcements and Senior keys. After a delay we painted the hill for Basketball Homecoming. No matter what problems we may have had, our class was unified in spirit, and we will always remember our three years at LHS.

Assistant Coach Larry Sneed, Head Coach Mel Geier, and Assistant Coach Charles Wiggins.

Juniors, Dean Zook, full back, and Wayne Yust, linebacker, were chosen as members of the WCKL All-League Squad.

Arlyn Converse, offensive end, and Owen Zook, defensive tackle, represented the Class of "70" on the WCKL All-League Squad.

Despite a mediocre 3-5-1 season, a basically young Larned Indians team showed a brand of football that was comparable to the 1963 WCKL champions. Usually battling physically larger teams, the Indians proved that they had a heart and spirit compared to none. The team's first battle came against a Lyon's team, that was the best their town had seen in 40 years. Larned was driving for a score when the final gun sounded, leaving the Indians with a heartbreaking 18-13 defeat. Dropping their next four games, losing three of them by slim margins, the Indians had ten of their eleven starters going both ways. Driving down to within one foot of the goal line, the team fumbled and lost the ball. In the fourth quarter, a tiring defense held Russell from penetrating our twenty yard line. The game ended in a scoreless deadlock.

With all players returning from the injury list, the Indians scored a homecoming victory, defeating the Garden City Buffaloes by a score of 36-6. Fighting from behind, in the third quarter the Indians scored two touchdowns to win the Kinsley game, 14-2. Traveling to Ellinwood, the Eagles proved no match for the outstanding defensive play of the Indians. Holding the Ellinwood team total offense to just 78 yards, the defense scored a touchdown itself, on a fumble. The game finished in favor of the Indians, 20-0. Going into the Great Bend game with a three game winning streak, the state ranked Panthers proved too much of a match for the smaller Indian team. Larned closed out its season with a 27-0 loss.

Coach Geier commented that over-all he was disappointed in the season's record. He said lack of consistent defense and inability to score when the opportunity arose were the main reasons for such a poor showing on the record.

The team placed four players on the All-League team, only one less than the '63 Championship team. Over-all, the record does not show the season's performance.

Velene;

Here goes - I can't say but everything on one page. Velene you know what I mean. Velene you Pam & Beth are my BEST friends and not many people, like you said can have. 3. Even though we fight a lot we'll always be friends as far as I'm concerned. This is our last year to run around as a gang together but even after you & Pam are "old married ladies" this bad influence will be around for some fun every so often. Remember all of the fun that we had and all of the lessons we've learned this summer if you have time and maybe you can convince yourself that you're not a "hoax" you can meet the rest of the "gang". Thanks for being Chauffeur and all-round drunk sitter, even though your driving scares me to death and I have to be smashed to ride with you. Lots of Luck next year sorry I didn't get to go with you.

Dear Velene

Deer Vilane,

You're finally going to

from that class of 70.

You have FUN At

and

MAY Youll
A Nice And get plan to go to

So be good and don't ruin the reputation of LONNIEITES Before I get there, or I'll do something radical! (Like fall Asleep.) HA! MAY Your fingers Always stay AWAY from Your unless Absolutely necessary, And Always follow good examples, like me, instead of putting bugers in Your hair! (whoever thought of that?) STAY sweet, HEAT, AND WASH Your feet, and I guarantee you that youll have 47% more friends and 50% fewer athletes foot cases.

Good Luck + may God Bless you with all things that are necessary for a happy life. Love Ya,

Lonnie

Save for Jam

all else - We've really come through alot, haven't we? - You were right, it all started in Mrs. Lee's Jr. English class - Since then, there's been Mike, Tom, Jim, Ron, Jod & of course Curtis, & all the aquaintences we know in Coyote Country. If I really get started, I'll never finish, so I'll try & keep this from being too sentimental or too long. But I can't resist a few Remember Whens & Don't forget - for example - just dragging the gut in Blue Tuna & P.C. Chugaboom - going "Home" - just plain talking about life, love & gossip - Taking those pictures at your house to send to Di & Craig, Sociology, English Study Hall - making the soap, work, Prom (short of them), and now finally, Graduation, Our Graduation is here. Golly Heck - its frightening & exciting at the same time - Remember "Quit it some more" Also, I'll say Thank You for being such a good friend, hope I can be as good back (Boy, Marion would have a kitten at that English Grammar), for lending me your shoulder when I needed it, for putting up with my moods, & giving advice - even tho I didn't always take it, it was appreciated. - Well, I said I wasn't going to get too sentimental, & I'll not mention our other shared memories - they'll crop up in years to come - I really don't think You could really forget. - Thanks again Val, - lets do stay good friends and laugh at our "escapades" in five years - tho I plan to see you before then -

Best of luck always, Val, & God Bless Ya. Love Pam
